Application for Zoning Compliance Certification for Recreational Campground or Camping Park

Whenever a new recreational campground or camping park is developed or an existing recreational campground or camping park is enlarged or its campsite layout is reconfigured, the owner or operator of the campground must apply to the Town of Goshen Building Inspector for a certification that the campground complies with Section III.O of the Town of Goshen Zoning Ordinance.

Note: If your project involves any new construction or modification of any existing structures, you must also apply for a Building Permit using the "Town of Goshen Application for Building Permit." Submit your application(s) and your application fee(s) to the Town of Goshen Building Inspector, P.O. Box 68, Goshen, NH 03752.
